About Our Space

Your event can get artsy in a contemporary new gallery in historic downtown Austin, Texas that exhibits vivid color photographs of the Austin scene, amidst creative works in paint, print, glass and neon. Located at 8th & Congress, the gallery is just blocks from the Capitol in Austin's downtown cultural heart, between the new Arthouse and the historic Paramount Theatre, walking distance to a dozen major hotels and the city's live music scene.

- Approximately 1200 square feet of open flex space with 17' ceilings in an Austin Landmark building, finished in a contemporary design with gorgeous natural light
- Features a small kitchen with a full-size refrigerator, sink, microwave, plus unisex bath, all ADA compliant
- A/V capabilities include a 58" wall-mounted HDTV with internet access, four new Macs, in-ceiling surround sound for polished presentations, slide shows and videos, with seating for 30 + (recommended occupancy is 65)
- Our creative team can pull together special exhibits, presentations, seminars themed to your group's interests
